Headline:
Generally cloudy with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle possible.

Today:
A cloudy and breezy day. Outbreaks of light rain or drizzle are expected at times, most likely across hills with some parts staying dry. Turning drier from the west through the afternoon, but staying cloudy. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying cloudy through the evening and overnight with outbreaks of rain or drizzle spreading east, reaching eastern parts by the early hours of Thursday. Winds easing and feeling rather mild. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Thursday:
Generally cloudy start, with overnight rain clearing east. Feeling warm with brief brighter or sunny intervals possible, before further cloud spreads east. Showers then possible, mainly during the afternoon. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Warm Friday, with sunny intervals and variable cloud. Rather cloudy Saturday, with showers possible. Following night and Sunday uncertain, but likely cloudy with heavy showers or rain, perhaps torrential downpours.
